When you click "Register" a new page will open, asking you to fill in a username and your e-mail and click "Register".

Once you have completed this step you will get an automatic e-mail with your password. Please go back to the main site of the blog and click on "Log in" on the bottom right side and enter your details. Once you logged in you should be taken to the "Dashboard" where you can make posts. Please click Posts > Add New.

The image shows the WordPress dashboard. At the top is a dark grey header with the WordPress logo, "Speak out...", a speech bubble icon, and a "+ New" button. Below the header is a sidebar with a menu: "Dashboard" (highlighted with a red box), "Posts", "Comments", "Profile", "Tools", and "Collapse menu". The main content area is titled "Dashboard" and contains a "Notice" box with the text "Notice: You're using the auto-generated password for your account. Would you like to change it?" and two links: "Yes, take me to my profile page" and "No thanks, do not remind me again". Below the notice is a "Right Now" section with a table of statistics:

Content	Discussion
1 Post	1 Comment
1 Page	1 Approved
7 Categories	0 Pending
0 Tags	0 Spam

Below the table is the text "Theme Twenty Eleven with 7 Widgets" and "You are using WordPress 3.5.1." On the right side of the dashboard is a blue box with a flag icon and the text "New Feature: Toolbar" and "We've combined the admin bar and Dashboard header into one persistent toolbar. Hover over the toolbar items to see the new features."

The window below should open. Enter a title for your blog post and add the content, once you are done click "Submit for Review" on the right side. Once this process is completed the APRRN Secretariat will review your post first and publish it.

The screenshot shows the WordPress 'Add New Post' editor. At the top, there is a navigation bar with '+ New' on the left and the user name 'Howdy, thazin810' on the right, along with 'Screen Options' and 'Help' menus. Below the navigation bar is the 'Add New Post' title. A notice banner states: 'Notice: You're using the auto-generated password for your account. Would you like to change it to something easier to remember?' with links for 'Yes, take me to my profile page' and 'No thanks, do not remind me again'. The main content area has a text input field for the title, currently containing 'Enter title here'. Below the title field is a rich text editor toolbar with icons for bold, italic, link, unlink, list, quote, image, and other formatting options. To the right of the editor are two tabs: 'Visual' and 'Text'. At the bottom left, there is a 'Path: p' and 'Word count: 0' indicator. On the right side, there is a 'Publish' sidebar with buttons for 'Save Draft' and 'Preview', and a 'Submit for Review' button. Below the publish section is a 'Format' section with radio buttons for 'Standard', 'Aside', 'Link', 'Gallery', 'Status', 'Quote', and 'Image'. At the bottom right is a 'Categories' section with tabs for 'All Categories' and 'Most Used', and a list of categories including 'General', 'Immigration Detention', 'Legal Aid', 'Right to health', and 'Statelessness'.

In case you have technical difficulties or you are not familiar with WordPress you can also send your contribution directly to the APRRN Secretariat and then we will post it for you. Please contact us that julia@aprrn.info and/or anoop@aprrn.info.
